Hi Marina,

Happy New Year!

Thanks for the wonderful synastry reading. So much to digest! Very comprehensive. So auspicious for us to be your first one of the new year, too.

Glad and relieved to hear the compatibility is not all in my head or wishful thinking, and that Mars/Saturn will not be the death of us considering we just got engaged. Nice to know the timing for the wedding is good, too!

So interesting about the Ceres and Lillith aspects. He definitely does see me as a spirit muse. I do feel the desire to "help" him with healthier lifestyle choices, but try to tread lightly bc of my tendency to want to fix people.

Funny about the karmic contracts, too. He always says we are soulmates. I thought, oh, yeah, everyone says that in the heady first days. I am also wary of that term bc recent interpretations say it denotes the person who will teach you a lesson you don't want to learn and it will be super painful. Eek! But who knows. The Internet is full of theories and bullshit.

And mid-May is when we formally decided to date exclusively! Wild that you pinged May 17 as a red letter day in our relationship.

So much rang true and so much made me want to learn more. Will definitely be getting him a reading for his bday in the summer.

Best to you in 2018!

To me, simply saying "thank you" to Marina feels nirvanic. A soul so adept, here to help us reflect on another mission we have entwined ourselves within, a path that we are voraciously seeking to remember...How do you try to explain the benefit of allowing let's say a journalist an all access pass to tour with you - the headliner of the show. For that can reveal truths that cut too close...however, it could also reveal your glory, the reason your heart beats. So to begin, those few words really it couldn't illustrate her worth.

So for those of you brave enough to seek guidance...do read on.

Marina is in theory and for narrative purpose only, similar to those precious jewels you only bring out on special occasions. She is in essence the touch of musk you press from the perfume bottle to your pulse point, just as the pheromones coalesce with the scent, she penetrates within and amplifies your heartbeat. If your underlying river of mystic is without the rain, she can help to change forecast. If you are ready to get wet, she will spark your memory to remind you of your truth and prepare a map to follow. And if you decide to use, you will find the oars that align with your magical beauty and anchor your presence simply by the breadth of some vast eternal memory that she carries, a higher functioning, finely tuned DNA. She astounds even the greatest spirit with recall. And just like every star shines within the greatness of our sky, she takes role and makes sure you've placed yourself high.

Marina is your secret weapon against the accumulation of attitudes, beliefs, ideas and perceptions trite with suffocating your spirit. And so you really must know that if your goal is to free yourself from the idea of yourself in order to BE every bit of YOURSELF and to honor your soul and LIVE this lifetime as YOU'VE planned, SHE. IS. the person if you've "coincidentally" come by way of...

....that has been waiting for you. For every soul has its journey and every soul has a past, and sometimes it just so happens that you only need a missing link (pun infinitely intended) to pay the honor of returning your compass, to align you with your future. Marina is an eternal friend.

Very interesting perspective on my life. I can definitely see where all of it falls into place. More information given on my part I am sure would have clarified things greatly. Thank you for your time and energy.

incredibly insightful reading last week from Marina. Very well researched, it seems, and her intuitive skills were spot on. With both (needed) gentle criticism and supportive words, the reading opened a window for me into my own world, with a view that had always been blurred before but is now much clearer for me. Thank you.

I had my first reading with Marina this week. My life went hardcore, extreme hectic, family illness, job change, new marriage and who knew what else in the future? Marina's reading was incredibly in-depth and articulate and wove relevant mythology throughout. Her voice was warm and supportive, so I felt I was in the room with her, not listening to an audio file, somewhere in the South China Seas. She explained the aspects and transits very eloquently and gave great guidance without ever being overpowering. Will bide my time and have another reading when the time is right. Thank you Marina. You are awesome.

My natal chart road trip reading gas mileage was one of "exceptional fuel economy"-LOL.

I google searched the keywords; whole sign houses and voila... Marina & her intriguing <https://darkstarastrology.com/> popped up. I have had an affirmative experience with a Portland, Oregon based Vocational Astrologer who introduced me to the Whole sign house system.

"My (Marina's) readings consider the fixed stars influence through the zodiac decans..."-This feature of my reading was the "game-changing" & unique perspective in interpreting my natal chart I was specifically looking for. My reading was communicated to me with clarity, frankness, and "bits" of delightful humor. I enthusiastically look forward to utilizing Marina's high-quality astrological services in the future and without hesitation recommend her to those who are open and receptive to an eye-opening reading in keeping with the life-transforming power of "knowing thyself".

Dear Marina, thank you for your reading. I've listened to it many times now, slowly taking in what you've shared. You were able to accurately pin point a lot of dates, events and emotions that I was going and am currently experiencing.

I also wanted to share with others how warm, generous and practical your readings are. You didn't mince your words but I felt like everything was said with compassion and empathy.

I'm currently using your reading as well as regular psychotherapy to help me with resolving these things that matter the most to me.

Warm wishes,
Luciano

As others have stated, I've had my chart done over the years here and there, but Marina's methodology, attention to detail and lens on the subject matter are simply a cut above. The practicality and 'real-world' usefulness of her chart reading continues to amaze me. It's rare to come across someone who is so clearly the master of their chosen field, and Marina is that is spades.

WOW! Is all I have to say. Marina's Natal Chart reading is so spot on. I've had done multiple "traditional" natal chart readings but none of them quite compares to this one. Marina's chart is different and so damn accurate, actually found someone that gets it and helped me understand more of myself and the reason why things just happened the way they did.

Marina - count me in as a return client. I absolutely love your style and how you completely grasp the energy of the chart.

Your reading and teaching very much validated the process I have been experiencing. It was empowering as your words simply echoed things that I have been already doing for years. And where I have surreptitiously looked for a raison d'être to act, your information offered one! Clearly I required some recognition (your teaching) to turn back within, to hear myself and accept my own senses and thoughts. I am tickled pink that I found your site and will be booking another reading to examine the transits.

Thank-you so much for the information and your balanced, kind and humorous voice!

Just finished listening to my natal chart reading. I've had my chart done before by different people but none of them are quite like Marina. I'm so glad I followed my intuition and purchased a reading. Her grasp of the energy plays and placements were spot on and compelling. I took several pages of notes of things she brought up that I want to look into. I plan on becoming a returning client.

There aren't many words to describe how good Marina is at her readings. Many astrologers can read charts and placements, but the emphasis and interpretation really makes a difference. Marina's reading got to the depth of my chart, and gave me an understanding of my inherent strengths and weaknesses, and also the unfolding energies that will manifest ahead. She helped distinguish energies that were helping me vs those that were disrupting me. Once I had that distinction, I had the power to work with them. Another aha for me was that the energies I was fighting were actually part of a very interesting long-term transformation, and would be the tools I needed for my own ambitions. Get a reading with Marina, you won't regret it!

Thank you, Marina!

This third reading with you has been, just like the others, so helpful in confirming my subtle impressions of what is going on in my world. Independent, objective confirmation is important to me, and your readings affirm what I have begun to know/notice in ways beyond the senses.

Great to know timing for my peak periods, and how they are simultaneously the most fertile yet challenging times for me. Your non-solar, right-brained perspective helped me see, yeah, I am doing too much and something will have to give. The disease of busyness in our culture today can obliterate what my body and soul are trying to tell me.

And the health info you offered was so illuminating.

I appreciate your candor, always, and humor as well.

Namaste!

Thank you so incredibly much for the two readings, Marina!! I connected very deeply with my Dark Star reading; It was intuitive, precise, and helped me in more ways than I could've hoped for. I would strongly recommend a reading from Marina. She is incredibly intuitive, knowledgeable, and honest. Her readings reveal deep truths and truly went above and beyond in helping me recognize my routes to growing into my fullest and most actualized self.

To Marina, creator of this beautiful website,

Thank you, Marina. You have helped me grasp my own intuitions and realize I am not alone.

Wow, thank you, that was a unique experience. Previous readings I've had cannot compare in depth or accuracy.

I'm very much in love with ancient systems of knowledge that can be used for self actualization, so I greatly appreciated your use of archetypes and alchemy in the interpretation of my chart, transits and progressions. I use them a lot myself, in my fiction. Ultimately, this is exactly what I was looking for: a natal reading that distilled my micro into the macro, weaving the details of my personal path into my larger soul purpose to serve the planet.

I enjoyed the personal tone and the charts you've drawn are beautiful and comprehensive.

The knowledge you've given me will definitely help inform new growth in my life as I endeavor to "transcend the chart."

I had a solar return reading recently by Marina and I'm absolutely impressed with her insights and her explanation of the upcoming year. I've had a solar return done once before and I was not totally satisfied or impressed with it. I'm amazed at how crucial this 2016 year will be for me in terms of decisions that need to be made and she clearly hit the nail right on the head on that subject for me. She revealed some pretty important peak dates that I feel almost prepared for in just knowing what they are. I believe Marina has an amazing talent because her passion speaks volumes to me. I'm definitely doing a solar return with Marina again!

Marina is absolutely the best! She shared so much about my life and my personality that she would never have known other than using my natal chart!! She so precisely presented so many factors and bits of myself and my life along with warmth and truth. I love how she doesn't hold back on some of the trickier issues and rather tells you how you may look at the situation or experience or change something. Marina has a very supportive and has a natural ease when speaking about your personal chart and is wonderful in addressing any questions you may have. It is obvious that she cares very much for her clients, and each chart reading is done just for you in the most precise and accurate way! Highly recommended! WOW!! Awestruck! I just had Marina Read my birth chart! Firstly the Email with the reading came into my inbox at exactly 0:00AM my

FROM THE MOMENT I just had Marina read my natal chart I knew, she knew that the reading came into my mind at exactly 9:09am, my birthdate! Very auspicious for me indeed!.. Then!!! From the moment Marina said, "This is a reading for Roberto, etc, etc" I literally got goose pimples, and had the awesome sensation that what I was about to hear, was TRUTH.. My PERSONAL truth.. How powerful is that!.. And that is exactly what my reading with Marina was.. I feel like I just spent the afternoon having tea with the Oracle at Delphi!.. And I say this, because the wisdom and deep insights that Marina has shared with me are nothing short of mind bogglingly profound! Hence the reason of likening her to the Oracle at Delphi!.. And I say "teatime" because a reading with Marina is like spending quality time with a close, intimate, wise friend who really knows you and sees you as you truly are! And even though this is done via mp3, I FEEL like Marina is truly present with me, and that is because she literally is present with my soul at the time of reading, and souls are timeless and boundless, so yes, Marina is present with my soul EVERYTIME I replay this reading as well!... Powerful, beautiful, and Intimate sharing of information, I get the sense that Marina knows me, sees me and is truly connected to me now, because she did truly connect with my core essence.. I have now listened to this reading a few times already, and I know that this work will be keeping me company for a while! Thank you Marina for sharing your precious gift with me, and thank you for allowing the wisdom of the stars to speak through you for the benefit of humanity! This is truly the BEST birthday PRESENT I could have given myself! I feel like I have truly honored my birthdate with this gift. HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO ME! 09/09!

Marina is a Master. If there were a feminine word for master, I'd use it, but there isn't – what matters is that it's true. Marina's natal reading for my chart was not just insightful but incredibly revealing for me, especially considering I'm a astrology Padawan. As I listened to the reading, I had a strong, unbelievable feeling that Marina was describing me completely; not a thing was off. That's testament not only to Marina's mastery of her subject, but of the power of astrology to help describe and guide one's life. The occult community "The Brotherhood of Light" considers astrology to be the "above" in "As Above, So Below." Marina's reading has solidified my belief that this is true.

On one hand, we have the energy of the universe flowing into us through the planets. Yet while we're here, we must choose wisely how we use that energy. Thanks to my natal reading, I have a much better insight into not only what choices are before me, but the libra scale that weights those decisions. I – luckily – have always believed that astrological influences are warnings of what is to come should one not take appropriate action. It's your destiny in the sense that if you do nothing, the astrological influences will prevail. But if you use astrology as a warning, then take actions to improve your life, you can truly enjoy every breathing moment you live.

Thank you Marina. I will certainly be a lasting follower and consumer. You have helped me improve my life to the point where I'm pushing my work and business to higher limits because I can see more clearly what I'm made of. In fact, after hearing Marina's reading of my chart, I delved even deeper into my spirituality and have since found (say, magically-universally attracted) a very rewarding relationship (Venus retrograde permitting...). My new partner actually matches my sun and moon sign; the only difference being ascendant, which turns out Aquariuses are attracted to - Gemini. We might as well be the same person, and it's been truly revealing to learn more about myself through another person. Again, thanks Marina. I'm excited to jump into synastry/relationship readings in the future as well as other readings you have to offer.

Dear Marina,

I knew what was happening in my life, but I was unaware of the factors influencing it. You illuminated so much in your reading -- You blew me away! The accuracy of your descriptions and the relevance of your suggestions were so incredibly on target that I couldn't help but smile as I listened to you. When I woke up yesterday I re-played everything again, almost in disbelief. It inspired me in such a way that I felt empowered by the knowledge. I regained the purpose and determination that I had in my life prior to the breakup and released myself from that "Piscean" pining and holding on.

I put up my profile and photos on match.com and had 24 suitors within 17 hours, one of whom, through communications, has me very attracted, and likewise for him. You mentioned I should look possibly for someone with which to have conversations that would be similar to the ones I had with my ex. This is THE man I can do that with. I also took your advice and downloaded The Dark Side of Cupid. I have yet to finish reading it, but found it so eerily similar to the experience I had with my recent ex that I wanted to hide under the bed. What a fit! One thing even more disturbing about my relationship with my recent ex, was that on two occasions, when I looked into his eyes, I saw that his pupils had enlarged to the point where his blue irises were totally black!!! Yes, in my mind, a dark cupid for certain, which made it all the easier to make the cut.

I am so fortunate to have found you and DarkStar! You are, without question, an extremely powerful and compassionate psychic, interpreter and guiding light. Anyone searching for a solid understanding of astrological impacts on his/her life would benefit enormously from your readings! The effect will be life changing!

Thank you so much, Marina!

Sincerely and appreciatively,

Gigi

Marina, thank you for the reading. I think your reading was so deep and caught on to the themes in my life very well - you were also absolutely right about my father. Marina, thank you for the reading. Your reading of my natal chart gave me such a powerful and fascinating point of view for myself and my life story. Many things make more sense through the lenses of your interpretation. What I like most about your reading and writings is that you make a synthesis of an occult knowledge and today's psychology and sociology, with bold statements of touching taboos, being your signature. I also think that we belong to the same "soul family" as you mention...I recommend the readings to everyone, who is looking for answers and meaning, from a different perspective.

I have a natal reading from Marina and I have to say that I enjoyed every bit of it. Marina is very intelligent reader and from her reflections it is clear that she knows the craft of astrology very well, also adding her own style that makes the reading unique.

I felt she was genuinely interested in the chart in front of her. She could talk for days about the chart and every sentence would be useful. I sensed a lot of honesty in her words, her conclusions are mature and wise and she manages to move through diverse layers of the chart, like certain details or seeing the bigger picture.

But almost one hour long record was so much more than just talking about the aspects among the planets or the stars. You will experience many other useful connections that Marina brings into being based upon your chart.

You will always have a chance to choose the way she does the reading for you (e.g. depending on your level of astrological knowledge). In my case, Marina has managed to adjust to my criteria and she also answered all my questions.

I keep returning back to the reading and I find there so much wisdom. And not to forget, Marina has a perfect sense of humor.

On a scale from 0 to 10 where 10 stands for the best, Marina gets 10 from me.

So go for it.

Marina is one of the best astrologers I have come across.. Her readings are far different from many different astrologers on the Web.. she combines traditional and Modern astrology by proving their importance through her readings..

She can translate the planets and stars energy's into a simple language and bring us the meaning of our existence and give a clear picture on our purpose and role in this world.. I strongly recommend every one to use her services to have a planned life..

Can I tell you how accurate DarkStar's reading was? Almost as if (Marina) had a book of my life and you had a glance through it.. very accurate! I have been looking for a knowledgeable enough astrologer to read my chart for a long time and wow did the universe answer me.

DarkStar's reading reflects and come together like a jigsaw puzzle that the universe has always been putting before me yet I was blind to see or did not want to see, etc.

Highly recommended and I will be coming back for future readings. Gift yourself a reading from Darkstar!

I received my Natal Reading today and it exceeded my expectations. Marina provides the full package -an in depth astrological reading with full explanation, providing rich mythological and sociological context and clearly leveraging emphatic skills to hone in on the most personally relevant aspects. I found myself laughing and nodding my head a lot as I listened to my chart. Although my mp3 was one hour in length I was sad when it was over. Best present I bought myself in a long time. Thank you, Marina. :)

WOW! I received my Natal Reading from Marina which far exceeded my expectations. She is a profound astrologer, whom I highly recommend. Psychic, empathic and very wise with an ability to weave together mythology, fixed stars, astrological houses, planets, symbolism and progressions which emphasize your unique personal story and journey. Her advice regarding your strengths and weaknesses is rendered in a most eloquent manner.

Thank you Marina, it has been an honor to work with you.

This is the fourth solar return reading I've had from Marina, and I've also had a Natal reading done.

I find she becomes better and better as time goes by. The method she uses for solar returns is very clear and precise in how it traces planetary influences throughout the year, and her advice is grounding, empowering and very helpful.

Her reading for last year was amazingly accurate in timing events and realisations that marked turning points for me, so I'm looking to this year's reading as an anchor of sorts, or a good map as I go on my journey. I will certainly go back to it many times as the year progresses, as I did with my previous readings.

Marina, many thanks, again, for your excellent work! :)

I had a solar return reading from Marina and it was excellent, totally hit the nail on the head with what is currently going on with my life, I could relate to everything she said. This is the 3rd reading I have had with Marina, previously I had the Dark Goddess reading which was brilliant too, a real eye opener. I really like Marina's readings as they give me something extra that other readings may not, and that is her knowledge of the fixed stars, which give you even more insight.

Thanks for another fabulous reading Marina!

Her reading was very insightful. I am an amateur astrologer who uses--usually--conventional methods, tropical zodiac, Placidus houses, but I have experimented with classical methods b/c I liked her reading. She uses whole signs and precession correction, likely a more 'ancient method'. In any case, her knowledge of lore and fixed stars was most accurate.

My Dear Marina,

Thank you so much for your reading. It really opened my eyes to the fixed stars that I had less than zero knowledge about, and the Yod which has eluded me for decades. But it finally made sense.

Btw, I love your new photos, you are very glam slam which I adore and am also connected to that incredible mind of yours and your writing that puts every astrologer out there to shame. Although I do want to read up on that Vivian guy you constantly write about who seems to have a keen knowledge of the stars.

All my love,

The natal chart reading Marina did for me was very insightful, thought-provoking and eerie in its accuracy—in a good way. I really appreciate her focus on the mythological archetypes represented by astral bodies in astrology, and the compassionate and intelligent way she discusses how these archetypes may manifest in her client's life. I was especially impressed by the way she delved below the surface level of my chart to interpret possible karmic implications of my natal aspects, and what they indicate about latent talents and resources I can tap, and skills I may need to develop. All of this was very interesting and helpful to me.

I wanted her to give me a chart reading because I've had an unusual life, and was wondering if anything in my chart could explain why so many events—some very lucky and others very traumatic—have happened to me. I've actually had two other readings by professional astrologers in the past, but their readings weren't able to answer my question, and I was left disappointed. Marina, however, absolutely nailed it. In her interpretation of my chart she elucidated things I've suspected about myself and my karmic path in this lifetime, but hadn't been able to verbalize or fully comprehend. Sometimes you know things about yourself, but for whatever reason, you need someone else to mirror the truth back to you before it registers. That's what Marina did for me. When I listened to her reading for the first time, I felt a powerful and emotional sense of recognition, and kept saying "yes, yes" and nodding my head, because what she was saying was so right on.

I find working with archetypes to be particularly helpful, because the myths attached to them include warnings about dangers to avoid, and also latent skills and sources of strength to develop. Most people will probably have many archetypes represented by their natal placement, and will be able to learn from all of them. My reading was particularly striking to me because the same archetype kept showing up over and over again, and though it's not the myth I would've chosen for myself consciously, I have seen this story play out in my life constantly, and it definitely does

Marina is super insightful. I have had a reading done before, but I never had a solar return chart/reading like this one. Marina is unique in that she totally understood who I am and what I feel and what I am going through! She just knew and that amazed me! I am looking forward to seeing all of her predictions come to light because I have felt exactly what she describes on everything she mentions in my reading; she was able to highlight details and make me feel more confident about my life path and what to look for to find success. WOW! The best part is that she helped me discover a lot about myself that was buried deep that sort of blurred my reality; she cleared things up and made me feel that I was on the right path and that it is ok to be different. This reading was very worth it and now I want to purchase all of the readings Marina has to offer. She will definitely be my go-to astrologer/psychic. THANK YOU!

This was the best natal reading I've ever had (and I had a few done before)! Marina accurately described my life path for the last few years and helped me to understand the hidden aspects of my personality and my overall view of the world. She also helped me to see 'the light at the end of tunnel'. But most importantly, she gave me a lot of food for thought and curiosity is always the first step forward. She gave me hope where I could see none before :)

Thanks for a great natal reading. What I am looking for in a reading is an astrologer who will push my buttons in a good way-- I want to come away feeling empowered and motivated, and Marina did this to the Nth degree. I also appreciated the hidden aspects of my chart that I had never been told about before, and esoteric broadminded likeminded world view from a fellow gen-xer.

She has a sharp mind & equally sharp intuition, & deep & wide knowledges not only of astrological matters but of the stories humans have been telling for thousands of years, about our deepest mysteries, as reflected in what we make of the stars. It gives me hope about this world in all its troubles to know that she's doing her new-world-minded work in it. Another great-to-listen-to, intelligent and engaged solar return reading from Marina. Her inclusion of the dark goddesses in interpretation of the chart is just what I'm looking for. Marina gives very sound, friendly advice based on excellent research... she really knows how to take mythological ideas and make them relatable. she has also given me a new appreciation for the non-planetary part of the science, such as the "fixed stars". I used to think of everything outside the basic planets as kind of a jumbled, confusing mess of overlapping stories. Well, now I see this had more to do with my own laziness in not doing enough research. The eye opener was that I had been working on a book for some years, and it just turns out that the motifs which are present in my star chart go hand in hand with the subject matter of my writing. It's just the kind of uncanny stuff that could easily be missed, but suddenly it puts everything into perspective. The more you find out, the more you realize you don't know!

Dear Marina,

The Universe spoke to me through you!..

Your prediction was that maybe this year I would make the big change in my life and even finish my 20 years career in banking. What you did not know, was that only one week ago I HAD contacted the H.R. department to arrange my exit..

I needed some reassurance for my decision and the Universe gave it to me through you. Amazing!

What can I say for the rest... Where you reading my chart or my mind? All your comments about my future plans are exact to the point.

I am insecure about the future, and my decision on leaving my job after 20 years was not easy at all, if you consider that I have a well-paid executive position. But, the plans of the Higher Consciousness are these for me at this point and I can feel it in all my existence.

Your words gave me great courage for the future to come.

I sincerely thank you.

Marina,

You did a natal reading for me back in Sept. 2013. I asked you about past life, and love. The whole reading was really fantastic. I enjoyed it very much. Having it spoken was especially great. To get a better feel, with someone's tone of voice and hearing the feeling.

In the reading, you pointed that I once fell in love with, and fought, and killed for a queen in holy wars. You said that I would meet my "queen" ... "queen female" soon. Some dates were listed and a few of those dates came and went. I waited to leave a comment in case I found her. I believe I have, just as you said. On Christmas day! It hasn't been long at all an I've never felt anything even close to this and I've been married once! It's incredible!

I also appreciated the fixed stars and asteroids that you gave some insight into. That's something that most astrologers won't look into. :)

Marina's Darkstar reading literally changed my life.

I've never understood why I was "the way I am" just knew I was born this way. Her insights are profound, astute, funny and candid. I cannot recommend them highly enough. IMO they are worth way more than she currently charges.

I'd advise you to snap at least one up while they're still so affordable. In comparison to many of my other bills and in terms of the value I got out of the Dark Moon reading... No contest. There's nothing like finally having someone validate you in the way her reading did me. Also the warnings and witty asides were outrageously accurate. I COULD not BELIEVE anyone would know these things about me without having known me all my life. Totally awesome!

Dear Marina,

Thanks so much for my amazingly detailed Year Ahead Forecast. Your intuition, and focus on figuring out and addressing why I came to you, produced the kind of clarity, direction and encouragement that I was seeking - and I feel much better.

You pinpointed some very valuable things that I did not know through readings with others, and that make a lot of sense to me now - such as the effect of Venus Retrograde on me - and I also think your use of the fixed stars vs just transits gives readings an extra and valuable dimension. I loved your focus on solutions and highlight on aspects that can help to deal with the tougher transits, and I think you have a unique, spiritual approach that helps you see things in a broad context. Definitely a passion and talent here - and I plan to be back for more readings. Much recommended to others!

Dear Marina I have to say your casting of my chart was life-changing. I have never seen my stellium in the 12th House - everyone else puts it in the 10th and so I have never understood their interpretation of my motivations or manifestations. This 'whole houses' chart finally explains everything I am doing, especially the extreme focus on my spiritual path and the 'self undoing' as my mother also puts it, in despair ;) It almost made me cry with relief knowing that what I believe my truest self to be, is indeed reflected in the universe. And it makes my decision about how made me cry with relief, knowing that what I believe my truest self to be, is indeed reflected in the universe. And it makes my decision about now to move forward with my life and loves a million times easier. Thankyou Thankyou Thankyou

Thank you for my Year Ahead Forecast reading Marina: it is by far the best reading I could have asked for right now! Getting a bird's eye view of what stands out for me transit wise is truly priceless! You spoke about so many aspects, their possible effects, and how to best deal with them, which by itself was worth the price of the forecast! I particularly appreciated getting an overview of how previous eclipses are playing out for me (spot on!!!) and how upcoming eclipses might play out for me...

I like how you put the reading together: a variety of techniques provide a fuller picture, charts, and links to relevant posts for transits/aspects mentioned in the reading. Going over peak periods helped to give context to so much of what I've experienced...and protections illustrated quite well what this year has been like for me, as well as giving perspective for previous years...Had never heard about either but your interpretation of how they work on my chart totally resonated.. I especially like how you use all of these techniques and flesh out the content: you definitely figured your way around my chart! And I was struck, by how I felt: as if I was listening to a long time friend who knows me really well...

Thank you!

Thank you very much for Marina's reading. I truly enjoyed it and gave me a lot of insights. You had described me as if you know me well in person. It was personal and heartfelt.

I feel my money well spent for the quality of your readings.

You had answered me a lot of my concerns that I worried myself might not be clear to see properly and gave me a lot of objective opinions with information of actual date and transits/progressions to look for. Marina have shared her knowledge of astrology to empower the journey of my current and past life events as well as positive things to look for.

I recommend readers whom are struggling with major life events to come to Marina as she is in touch of her sensitive emotions as well as her intuition. Her knowledge of astrology is extremely healing and she encourages you to move forward when you are stuck. She will show you your strengths and weaknesses to give you sensible advices.

The true purpose of astrology is to heal and strengthen your ingrown abilities to redirect and to further your life's path and in here through Darkstar astrology, you can get a good headlight of the transformation of your journey.

I enjoy Marina's blog a lot, that's why I ordered a Natal Reading, which I highly recommend.

I trusted her and I did not regretted at all. It was exactly what I expected and more: a tailor-made, insightful and captivating experience.

Her interpretation was made with delicate craftsmanship, has brought to me whole new perspectives and was delivered with a very easy-going attitude.

All the above reassured me about my initial impression about her: that she is a "lighthouse" in the very "dark" and misunderstood practice of astrology.

Your reading provided some very informative and interesting insights. You helped point out influences and patterns that I had been grasping at, but couldn't quite put into words.

The way you articulated certain issues definitely helped a number of things 'click' for me and I appreciate it greatly.

You provide a unique perspective and are a wealth of knowledge. The information and insights you provided were amazingly accurate.

Thank you very much.

Hi Marina,

Just want to let you know how much I appreciate you and your reading. I've had personal natal chart readings done before. But none them could compare with your reading. Your reading has a different angle and much more depths and I love every bit of it. I like the archetypes " the Jupiter man / the god" and it is easier for me to understand & feel the energy associated with it. The more I listen to the reading, the more amazed I become. I was like, " wow that's spot on, how does she know that! " yeah, why I never thought about it, it all makes perfect sense now! " Also the part about my past lives, I'm constantly getting vivid dreams about my past lives and my dreams seem to match perfectly with what you discovered in the reading.

I'm very thankful to you and your knowledge, accuracy, openness and humor. Thank you for offering me this opportunity to better understand myself from a unique and deeper level.

I will report back in a few months' time and provide feedback about the 6 month forecast reading.

Thanks and regards

Amy

Thank you Marina,

I would like to say thank you for the brilliant natal reading you have sent me. I found it accurate and intuitive and perceptive. I was really interested to learn about Black Moon Lilith and the fixed stars in my chart and also about my transits at the moment. I am so pleased I decided to have this reading with you and will be back for more later!

Wow Marina!!!

Thank you so much for my Dark Moon reading, omg it was fantastic! I will listen to it again and review my charts along with but my first impressions were it was amazing, giving me so much insight to my life and relationships. Your intuition was spot on. And thank you very much for your positive and encouraging comments. Love the part about Pluto/Persephone too! The whole reading really helps me make sense of things, like a jigsaw puzzle fitting together. Ive never had a reading that includes fixed stars so its very very interesting! Im really looking forward to receiving my Solar Return reading from you next :)

Thanks again

best wishes Alexis :)

Now Reading Dark Moon!

I feel as I recovered my self from illness, long and draining one. I feel I got my strenght back!

My feeling were just sooo right AND my gut! Only this society and this paradigma which is so old, rigid and square!

I really feel as Pinkola Estés says: recovered the wise women within, the one that runs with wolves.

Marina!

May I confirm what I wrote in an e-mail to you:

Thankyou very much for the natal chart, which made me see myself like in a mirror, really, in my nature. In what I am and what I have always been. Thankyou also for providing me with some good ideas about the nodes, in which I really felt quite lost. I will sure listen to it more times, so I am able to understand your words and the meaning of them. At least, I do what I am good at (comm. and children, social service). What was really new to me -though, many times have been told to- is this relating and taking care of my own self (ejem... cough, cough). Thankyou for reminding me to support my life and to live the way my NN would bring to me (all the goodies, really and in all aspects!). I am related to Earth and Nature. And thankyou for reminding that IS always available for me, even while living in this huge city.

Also, may I add that I do really feel at home at this site. That both of you really walk -as I have never seen nobody- the very light and so narrow line of being respectful and letting us free.

Now, that I had received my natal chart, I really sense my belonging here, so to say. I felt deeply understood! And found for me some interesting paths that should lead me to my NN.

Thanks again!

Rocío Incera.

I had a solar rtn reading done from Marina recently because I've been consumed with worry and fear about the health of my family members in the coming year. I'm sure that Marina sensed this. My chart showed some ominous signs that confirmed my biggest fears but Marina showed great compassion in interpreting my chart. I will never forget her kindness which will go a long way in getting thru what might be the most emotionally difficult year of my life.

Just received my solar return reading -I really made it difficult for Marina, only my question hardly any further indications: MARINA DID A FANTASTIC JOB, very clear answers, understandable even for amateur astrologers. I WISH TO HIGHLIGHT HER PRECISE ANSWERS AS WELL AS HER INTUITIVE-WARM-AND HEARTFULL EMBRACE OF THE OVERALL SITUATION. My reading was eye opening and a better understanding of certain events and situations. I CAN ONLY RECOMMEND YOUR READINGS MARINA, was one of the best and precise I EVER had! Thank you very much!!!

I received my Natal Reading about two weeks ago and it's amazing! I'd never had a fixed stars reading before and I was surprised at the amount of information that they can give. But the really extraordinary part is the way Marina navigated through all this, touching minor and major themes in my life and actually making me aware of the resonance between my chart and my choices. Which I already had an idea of, but listening to her mp3 was like actually having the drawn canvas in all its details right in front of me. (Yes, that means the reading is accurate in every way!) I feel like it's given me more perspective. I've listened to it a few times, and will continue to do so; as other posters say, I keep getting something unique out of it every time. Thanks a lot Marina and keep up the amazing work!

I just received my Dark Moon reading and it was incredible. I have purchased other readings from different sources prior to this, but this was without a doubt the most personal and insightful, overall, and most enlightening in regards to the darker subjects that were given exposure. This reading is something we all can benefit from and use as a catalyst for a thorough, soul reaching personal growth.

I have had natal readings from both Marina and Jamie and must say that they are worth every penny and more. VERY knowledgeable, they use their stellar insight of aspect patterns, asteroids, and the stars to delve into the depths of your astrological make-up that reaches a level far beyond anything else you'll find online. Ceaselessly learning, they post their research and share their knowledge through articles you can find here on their site.

If you haven't had the pleasure of having a reading I highly encourage you to order a natal reading now. You will be blown away by their insights and listening to it/reading it again and again always finding something new that speaks to you. They truly are stars that shed light on the sometimes dark pathways of our lives.

Hi Marina ... Thank you for the synastry readings which you did for me one year ago this month. The readings were extremely accurate and deeply insightful. The readings are touchstones for me and I frequently listen to them even now, as there is always advice and revelations on further reflection. Your readings have given me guidance and healing during the last year and I'm forever grateful that I found Darkstar Astrology and yourself. Blessings

I've had natal readings before but I'm always up for another one, to see what someone will discover, new insights.

And a friend of mine was talking about the fixed stars in her chart. I HAD to know more and I knew of this site so promptly scheduled a reading.

What I loved most about the reading was the detail, the story the fixed stars told, and the confirmation it gave me.

I knew that certain placements in my natal meant that I had some intuition but after reading Jamie's email, I felt more confident which will make my readings better. Not only am I doing this work now, but clearly in past lives as well. Jamie knows his stuff.

And even when there was a "harsh" energy to the star or the chart, he had perspective about it. This was not a doom and gloom reading at all. He saw the highest vibrations of the energies and his tone was positive (the man does have a 9th House stellium!).

Thank you, Jaime

JCS · 6 years ago

I ordered the 'Dark Moon' reading because I was very sure I had to do something with my (mean) Lilith placement (Gemini 3rd house).

I've paid for a few astrological reports in the past, which were all pretty good, but Marina's is by far the most in-depth and precise (no fluff at all--straight to the point!). I requested for my chart to focus on 'professional success' too and Marina handled this request in a very skilful manner that was both intuitive and rational (providing something that can "point me in the right direction," in other words).

This is my first audio report and I totally love it (soothing voice with care and insight). I enjoyed scribbling down my notes while listening on the first round.

This report probably gives me more clarity and accurate insight than a lifetime of therapy/anti-depressants/whatnot. Wow, from past family skeletons in the closet, to possible infamy, to sexual politics--and the "recurrent themes" in my chart were definitely spot-on. Will definitely make the most of what I now know, thanks to Marina's wisdom with the "Dark Moon" Lilith + recommend others for these readings on Darkstar Astrology (P.S. If you "feel" like you have a dark chart, this is definitely the place to get readings)!

Dawn · 6 years ago

I have never before been so validated by any 'therapy' as I have been by Marina's natal reading. She clearly and warmly articulated that sense of myself which I have spent a lifetime trying to know the shape of. I was shocked at the first listening, crying for the second and about a stone lighter on listening for the third time. I am very grateful to have come upon this site with its many gems of insight and information.

Thank you Marina for being both gifted and generous with that gift. I'll be back for more!

"Natal Reading" does not begin to do justice to what you do Marina... What showed up on my inbox was a personalized study with charts, an MP3 reading about my birth chart that included recent, current and upcoming relevant transits with advice on how to best handle them, and links to relevant posts on Dark Star Astrology.

The MP3 was the cherry on the top that put all of the information together for me... I particularly appreciated your "delivery": I felt like I was listening to that long-time friend who knows you THAT well... It was humorous where it needed to be, and you referred to different details I had mentioned briefly in my email to you, clearly showing your attention to detail and the high level of care and dedication that goes into the work that you do... I felt both relaxed and reassured by your obvious level of expertise. A good combination, I would say...

The MP3 reading itself was eerily accurate... While I suppose the aspects would draw similar conclusions by others who may read my chart, you actually brought those aspects to life, specifically how they have tended to play out in my life quite accurately! I appreciated your advice for handling some of the more difficult aspects of my chart because I can see myself managing to implement it more consistently now that I am more aware of how those aspects play out. It was also very enlightening to get some perspective on my recent goings-on... I will be on the look out for, and hopefully will better handle them when I need to in the months ahead... (Damn those pesky retrograde planets...)

Thank you so much for the work you do Marina... It does translate into awareness, reassurance, and a sense of empowerment to those who are lucky enough to come across you... Purchasing that Natal Reading is by far one of the best things I have done for myself, so I would obviously recommend you without hesitation!

Shannon · 6 years ago

Marina,

WOW! I have had a lot of readings, so I was not sure I would hear anything new, but I did, and you were so on target! I want to give you detailed feedback so you can see how your reading correlates.

You mentioned whistle blower, and spy: I worked for the govt. in surveillance of fraud and abuse in healthcare for the poor, unmarried women, children, and disabled. I am also something like a human lie detector, so people think I am a spy often because I know things they don't think I should.

You mentioned the swan: The swan as a totem signifies comfort in two worlds--water & sky, long neck being a bridge between worlds, inner and outer beauty, and one source stated that "you must acknowledge what you know." Also, oddly, when I was young I got some tattoos. The first was a butterfly, half beautiful, the other half was just the black outlines. On my back I got the image of the Lovers tarot card from the Tarot of the cat people. Uncanny considering all you said about speaking out, and dual imagery/oppositions.

Asc sq neptune--this is both blessing and curse. I find people never see me as I truly am. I am either thier dream or nightmare, angel or devil, and I have frequently suffered from undeserved reputation/false accusation/etc. On the other hand, I have what was called in ancient Scotland (where some of my ancestors are from) glammer, or glamourey--a kind of magic--the ability to make people see what I want them to see: The swan as you said. In the past I was very active in music, dance, theater, and I love to role play, so that all adds up.

I have in the past had many addiction type issues--drugs, food, exercise...sexual anorexia (person does not have an aversion to sex but to intimacy) which manifested as Female Dominance with a flavor of both retribution & healing. I was a "Goddess." Loving, but somewhat unapproachable, and like all the Goddesses, I definately had my dark side.

As you mentioned, I do suffer a lot from confusion. I always thought it was becuase of libra moon--able to see all sides. A couple of the forces that propelled me into the Church were my fascination with the art/imagery/and universal symbolism present in the Church, but also I was seeking community, ritual, & the feminine (in Mary, the saints etc) and Catholicism has the only truly accessible mystical traditions that have a strong community presence in my area.

Anyway, loved the reading!!! I am definately going to want to get a Dark Goddess reading in the near future.

Judy · 6 years ago

Wow, Marina!

I feel like I should give my initial impressions of your reading or it will just get too complicated!

A year or 2 ago, I discovered a beautiful painting - The Uninvited Guest. I just loved the idea of a beautiful wedding with a hidden aspect. Ah yes, Sun conjunct Eris - the story of my life.

Another theme - being a nurse. I feel my past lives as a doctor put a block on moving forward. I feel I was hung as a doctor in a past life for a patient's death. I know I must have been a witch/wise woman due to the interests I have but, I also have a huge block on this too.

Progressed Neptune on Asc. I've felt this for a long time. I almost lost the use of my legs. Even a year ago, I had trouble walking. I'm good now because of changes I have made.

I feel you have opened a window. There is a small beam of light. Perhaps I can see where it leads.

Hi Kate. A good basic reading to start with is the natal.<https://marinadarkstar.wpengine.com...> It will show your strengths and weaknesses, talents, which career direction you should take and how you can make the best of yourself. I also have a look at past karma through the Nodes which will reveal why you may be having blockages (Your husband) in this life. I will also look at your current transits to see why you are experiencing this crisis now and when it will pass.

I am here to add yet another gold star to this page full of glowing reviews. I received my Dark Moon reading and I was so impressed from the wealth of information that Marina was able to pick up on! I did have expectations of this being an excellent reading(I mean, who wouldn't, read all of the reviews), but seriously, those expectations were blown right out of the water. That is saying a lot because expectations are a challenge to surpass. Marina definitely knows what she is doing, and has a way of communicating these sensitive points without sacrificing integrity of message to be non-offensive, and thus vague. The wealth of information within her shows, it was a joy to listen to. I have listened to it several times and I am still soaking everything in. I am amazed at how the energy of myth can be present in our chart and how this can affect our lives. The energy of the Dark Goddesses/Moon has played a more powerful role in my life than I could really find concrete and concise evidence for. It was one of those things I always strongly felt, but could not really "prove" to myself in a way, or even understand where or why it was coming through in certain ways. Why did I instinctually feel or act out certain ways? Were there patterns in my life events? How does all of this relate to the energies of the Dark Moon? This reading answered all of that for me - years of questions I had held inside like sacred puzzle pieces - and it has confirmed over and over how complex and deep all of this can be, and how far this can be taken... all from points in a chart that maps the moment you are born! I cannot thank you enough for the wonderful service you are doing here. I feel it is important that we as a collective are aware of how these energies play out in our lives so that we become more self-aware human beings, especially coming to understand energies of the Divine Feminine that has been ignored and repressed for so long. I know I have gotten so much out of my reading, and I know I will be back again for another reading type in the future! Darkstar is a gem, thank you again!

Kacey · 6 years ago

Wow Marina, so much info, where do I start? Thanks for such an inspiring SR reading! :))

As it is, I'm writing a thesis now, which will lead to a degree -hopefully I'll hand it in somewhere around July- and yes, this is a year I hope to promote my writing in this line of work, so that I can actually go ahead and start with a teaching job. First spot on! It's a relief to hear it's a good year to promote myself in this field. I've forgotten how to do that, really, but I need to get on with it now, so thanks for making this point! I also intend to apply for positions abroad, as the situation here is anything but rosy...

So, that's another yes, about the collective upheaval you mention being reflected in the chart: living in Greece at the moment means being faced with every doom scenario possible, from bad to worse to the end of the world, sheer terror at times...It does teach you to take it one day at a time, though.

Now, I do have a spiritual path and it's the thing that keeps me going under the circumstances, but it's not a job and it's not my intention to work in this field...for now, at least. But, I do see the 'spiritual warrior' point you make in the Neptune-Mars aspect and, to tell you the truth, this is exactly how I want to move with this energy. I'm not very fond of Neptune touching my Mars (natal Mars being already in Pisces, enough fog there, thank you); but I do see its value in directing assertiveness into something for the greater good. I can go with that.

About the Lilith/Jupiter/Venus thing, Pluto in the 7th (by transit also) and the 7th/10th square...what can I say... I'm single at the moment and the conflict you mention is something I've experienced internally, rather than externally. I don't know how it will be with a someone new. In my past relationships, there were almost always issues of secrecy/lies/non-availability/disillusionment and a lot of pain (Venus opp. Pluto natally). I sincerely haven't got ONE clue as to how my love life will look like in the future... I just hope I can clean whatever ashes remain of this old energy and move on to more loving relationships...sooner than later, would be appreciated!

On the 'third person' issue, there's this uncertain kind of 'friendship' with an ex (who at this point has a girlfriend), re-appearing a few days

Dear Marina and Jamie,

Sorry took ages but the impact is all the same- the reading and the rectification are both amazing. I'd like to thank Jamie for the great rectification he did for me. I must say it is -bulls eye- just where it should be. It is an eye opener that Marina saw my "psychic" ability. It always flashes before my very eyes but I never paid attention or refuse to acknowledge it. Now I know how to appreciate it and consider that it's all in me. I plan to enhance it and be able to recognize it more as it comes. Not everyone is gifted with that ability and I must be thankful for it. I do not know how to thank you enough but I am sure all those who will engage your services will feel the same way. Best wishes, Anabelle

Thank you for expanding my view. The fix stars are a great addition and bring color and flavor. By the way, Marina, with Alcyone on my Sun at 29 Taurus, I was born with vision in only one eye. I highly recommend Darkstar readings to anyone, whether you are a seasoned astrologer or a skeptic. I will keep you posted with details of my experience.

Hi, Marina , Jamie, & DarkStar Astrology staff.

Based on the readings I received so far, I must admit I am quite shocked with how seemingly accurate your readings were. Even coming from a skeptic, yet fairly knowledgeable about astrology, I am also very surprised how much NEW things I learned. You went to straight to the details providing, the personal readings, I truly desired, which I did not get from the regular computerized natal chart sites.

I admit, I was a little embarrassed after realizing how much personal information I gave you, but I am glad you chose not to read into my e-mail entirely. And that starting fresh, surely shows the credibility of your knowledge of astrology. And based off not knowing my past, it is amazing how accurate your readings described my life so far.

My problem was is that even though I know a little bit about astrology, I really do not know the certain details of astrology and how to truly read my chart. And because of that I grew obsessed to know more about my chart, and what my future holds. This lead me to buy other company natal charts, they pretty much described the same things, but I still wanted more. Like I said what I truly wanted was a very personal reading, and your services have allowed me to do, which I am grateful for. Listening to your chart I can see some Scorpionic/Plutonic reasons for my obsession, but because you have gave me the information what I wanted to know, I feel like I can move on from this study (or at least become more concerned about other matters of my life).

Overall, the readings you gave me so far are fairly accurate. I would like to explain more about some of the readings you told me and how they relate to me currently. Both my twin brother and I are Korean adoptees living in America. We did not know much about our birth mother until

Marina,

I was extremely satisfied with the reading! Not only were you greatly knowledgeable, but very insightful. As I told you my mother and I have a great interest in astrology, and we were amazed at how accurate and how detailed the reading was. I have a couple of friends I am definitely recommending you to.

Dear Marina,

The synastry reading was really well done! I was surprised by how accurate it was. It's interesting how the past has such a large role to play in resolving issues in the present. Thanks for all the wonderful insights. :)

Aha, done a first pass through my Dark Goddess reading and I'm deeply gratified. You get excellent marks for being straight forward, no sugar-coating, right to the point. I'm not an astrologer but you were able to put all this in terms I understood quite clearly. You are the second person who has identified some of the specifics about me (ironically, though, the only astrologer!).

One more source and I'll be sold on my switch in career choice. I know, I know, this isn't a vocation-type reading but you bet I've been pondering these oddities in me. Your wording and phrasing that I'm "wired" for some of these darker aspects of life and other people. No reason not to use it to help them. :)

I was amazed when I received Marina's mp3 for my natal chart. She told me things I had suspected for years, and helped me understand the feeling of walking the fine line between light and dark. She also helped me to understand how to achieve balance, and to realize that I am on the right path. I can't wait for Jamie's reading!

I received Marina's mp3 natal chart reading this past week. I tell you, in the past, I have spent a lot of money going to different astrologers on the web getting readings done. This reading has been the most insightful one of all. It is not computer generated. I appreciate that Marina took her time to really analyze my chart. I loved that she focussed on how the planets aspected stars/asteroids I have never even heard of! Marina told me that I need to become a warrior woman and it has stuck in my head!

I will definitely be coming back for more in the future!

I cannot wait to receive Jamie's reading :-)

Just had a reading from Marina for a specific question and the care and detail that she put into it were amazing. I laughed a lot and cried a bit because she spotted my dilemma, put into words something I have barely been able to articulate and made me look at it the other way up. I have been following Darkstar for a while and learning so much about my chart and how difficult transits have affected me, but nothing beats having someone as knowledgeable, intuitive and downright funny as Marina do a reading to get the full picture and a different perspective. She has the gift of breaking your flaws to you gently! This is the real thing.

Thanks evil agent of Pluto!

I ordered my second reading from Darkstar ~ consistently brilliant. There are no preprinted, sausage factory sheets, its all done personally for YOU. Marina sends a recording, Jamie sends a written report on the moon transits. The readings are accurate, insightful and practical - and great value for the personalisation received. Thank you guys, so happy :)

Marina's Dark Goddess reading was really affirming and incredibly accurate. The Dark Goddess has been knocking on my door for decades and I welcomed her while at the same time holding her at arm's length. This reading came along just at the right time to help me with a big leap into reintegration of these energies so long hidden and causing pain and confusion. Getting them back is a huge joy and a great wonder. Her deep understanding of this process is really a gift. Highly recommended.

good morning star readers, i received my first reading from marina yesterday and was reminded of the beauty and wisdom written at our birth. Marina's interpretation was scholarly,(boy does she know her stuff) and guided by an intuitive grace, giving it a magical quality, that moment when you know you are with someone whose vision is expansive, alluring and illuminating

A belated THANK YOU for the amazing reading!!! I have listened to the MP3 recording several times and continue to find it enlightening and thought provoking... and incredibly accurate!!! I have had several readings with various astrologers and intuitive psychics over the years - some rather well known - Marina's reading made even the good ones them look amateur! I was especially impressed and appreciative of the way Marina was able to read between the lines of my inquiry and craft a customized reading for me. I also really appreciated the follow up correspondence we exchanged which helped me further process my reading. It definitely wont be my last reading! Thank you!!

I just now finished listening to Marina's mp3 reading for my Solar Return.

I was a bit skeptical of a mp3 reading and skeptical that it might be a bit of a fluff. I should know better! She spoke of the connections to ancestry and what have I been doing but looking over my Mother's albums and telling my son of the lineage and seeing his Norwegian side,my father, like an anchor. Marina said saturn was on the 4th, anchor was the word we both used. She said SN on sometimes arrogance Orion last year might have had a come uppence and again the Mother influence called me a Pompus Ass. She said I was chained from letting my hair down. Yes! I was screaming out loud and curling my toes. Excellent once again. She said the NN was about the snake charmer and Kundalini which is exactly my plan, to work with the centering of the Kundalini energy after 30 yrs of yoga and having one experience of feeling like "just a channel". So with so little information she is so amazingly on. Do check her out, it worth it.

Thank you so much Marina and Jaime for this wonderful reading...

I wrote a long confusing letter to them and still they managed to cover all the points I had discussed plus tapping in to other significant things in my life. As I study astrology I asked to get it explained to me where in the sky the interpretations were coming from and I really got some helpful insights from their side. I also got heaps of new mythology to read up on in order to go deeper in to interpretate my chart further and the story's that are affecting my life.

I really think these guys are following their path and are making a huge difference to this world with their work. There original way of reading charts, that seems to be ever evolving as they evolve, are not only accurate and helpful but also revolutionary.

The world is evolving and so must astrology. There astrology is very relevant, at least for me, but I think for many others as well.

I can see this just in the way that where I am at the moment, in India, you don't use any bodys outside of Saturn. They are not relevant to the culture. People don't break out of the norm in the way of Uranus for example. Likewise, what a jotish astrologer would tell me would not be relevant to me. I don't care when you think I am getting married or how many children I will have.. He he...

I felt like I could be totally open with the issues to address without feeling that the person interpreting my chart would not have a clue of how to relate to my world and outlook on life.

The world got lot's to be grateful for as these guys are shedding light on the hidden dark feminine forces that have been hiding in that cave of our unconscious, companied by Lilith, in exile while patriarchy has been rowing this planet and our consciousness.

It is time for change, so as above, so below.. These asteroid goddesses are not only another tool to interpetate charts, they are vital for us to understand in order to make conscios decisions to create a better world in these times of change.

Thank you so much again for your wonderful contribution to the world.

Keep up the good work cuss you got a new customer that are going to want to have more of your amazing insights and for all her friends as well!

Cheers,

O

I've done quite a bit of astrological research over the last year or so, and I've got to say... not only did your natal chart reading hit what I've found on the head, you found some new insights too that I had suspected for some time, but couldn't put my finger on.

Now that I've gotten some more insight into myself, and my possible potential (as well as a few of the things I really need to work on/look out for... especially those Mars aspects and energies!), I should be able to put some of the fiery past behind me. Perhaps instead of the path of war, the path of peace, so to speak.

Definitely recommended! Already talked to a friend about this, and hope to pass the word on to a few others who I think would be interested.

Marina,

What I've come to realize through intuition, you have very easily revealed through knowledge of the constellations. Thank You! That was a very accurate Dark Goddess reading. Swinging between the dark and the light is a path I know all too well and yes I did spook my family growing up. Lol. I've steered clear of addictions and embraced the spiritual so I'm glad I've taken to the positive influence of the planets. This was very insightful, almost as if you were preparing me for what is to come. Thanks again and I'm glad I was lead to this site. :)

Your reading was so insightful and on the nose, without knowing a thing about me! I loved the way the tarot was woven with the reading, as well as all of the different types of readings (year ahead, solar return, natal glance) were woven together. I really felt like you took the time to look at me as an individual. The incorporation of fixed planets was interesting too. I'm looking forward to following the specific key days that you noted throughout the next two years to see what happens! Thank you!! I highly recommend Marina and Jamie!!

I was very impressed by the wealth of information in my natal report. Marina was spot on with a lot of her observations I also thought the Tarot cards were a really nice touch :) Jamie's insights just complimented Marina's observations perfectly! They both definitely gave me a lot to think about. I was very pleased with my reading and definitely recommend Marina and Jamie's natal reading to anyone who is keen on gaining a deeper understanding of themselves. Thank you both so much for sharing your unique an enlightening knowledge with me! :) Actually I was so impressed I am considering getting a dark goddess reading, but I am just curious how does it differ to the natal reading? Marina you already touched on the influence of Lilith and Eris in my chart, does the goddess reading elaborate on that?

This is Katia (I wrote the review above). I just realized that by calling myself a "beginner in the field of astrology", I might give off the idea that I am easy to impress and don't have a good point of reference to judge a reading. In retrospect this wasn't a good choice of words and I only wrote that so that people who are new to astrology are not discouraged by some of the terminology they see on the site and in the comments sections.

I come from an occult background and can tell a cold reading, from an intuitive one and a mix of the former, from a reading that is based on information that had to be methodically discovered by the reader on his/her own, even if they did beautifully use intuition as a supplement. I just have too much respect for the real professionals to call myself anything other than a beginning student - especially in respect to the innovative stuff Jamie and Marina are doing.

Katia · 7 years ago

Jamie and Marina, provided me with an genuinely insightful "Natal Reading". They are truly pros at what they do! I'd asked for some specific issues to be focused on and they covered them in great depth and in a way that made sense to someone who is a beginner in the field of astrology. They also brought in some other issues that they felt were important for me to consider and gave gentle and empathetic advice and how to work with them, while moving towards my goals.

Everything in their reading resonated with me and I had either felt the things they discussed to have always been the case, or to have started happening within the last few months. The reading was insightful, professional and came from two people who genuinely cared! Like I said, I have yet to give astrology an in depth study and was pleasantly shocked about how much precise and detailed information it provides and how helpful it can be when harnessed and made to work for one's greatest good. Marina and Jamie are really an awesome pair and I highly recommend them!

I've ordered three readings over the course of the last year I think, the synastry reading, the Dark Goddess reading and now the forecast.

I am very impressed with your non-traditional, consistent and intuitive approach to astrology. It's a kind of astrology I've never seen being done before, and I've been learning so much, not only from your readings, but also from reading your articles on here.

I'm always striving to expand my (astrological) horizon and find astrological techniques that seem logical and consistent to me, and you provided exactly that. It gave me new ideas to investigate further in my own astrological work. Thank you!

Now about the readings: I am just blown away. And I find that I often come back to all the readings, even the synastry one. Some paragraphs touched me so deeply that I know you have hit a very important spot in my sub- or halfconsciousness, and I need to follow these thoughts further.

Your reports are very accurate, but they are so in a deeply personal way, which - quite frankly- amazes me.

I find most astrological reports kind of "superficial" - they may be accurate, but they don't dig deep enough-, yours definitely just went right into the core of my soul and personality.

Apart from that you even inspired me to look into fixed stars, which I had avoided to do before, because it all seemed so "doom and gloom".

But now I feel that I had been missing a very significant part of astrology and my understanding of fixed stars and how they can be integrated consistently into analysis grows by the hour.

You've given me much stuff for thought and further study, and my Aquarius-Moon and Sun-Mercury-conjunction in Sagittarius rejoices about that.

One last thing:

In the relationship report of last year Marina drew some Tarot Cards for it. In the future the "3 of swords" appeared.

Now in my personal forecast for 2011 the very same card appears, just this time as indicative of the present.

This interconnection just blows me away.

Thank you Marina. What I like about your readings and site is that you offer information that others do not and that you are both so uniquely and thoroughly into it. It seems to also give you a wider more varied scope to approach the charts story with moderate price tags. I found your reading thorough, accurate and satisfying whilst maintaining throughout a sense of connection to your strength and presence within it. I definitely would do this again either to explore deepening or to approach from a different angle. Much much thanks. I agree with all the above praises given to the works. Merry Christmas 2010. It's snowing, the field is covered here on the West coast today with a blanket of white.

Wow thank you so much Marina, just read though the report and very excited to re-read it again, so much to absorb. All so accurate! Unaspected Sun, yes my father disappeared from my life when I was very young so I have built up my Saturn focal point of yod over the time. Amazingly accurate about the Persephone theme too, very 'mothering' mother which is sometimes hard to break away from even as an adult. All the mystic aspects, yes so true I am into tarot, astrology, the occult, I absolutely find all these things fascinating. I also do attract quite powerful and 'unusual' characters into my life as an interesting reflection. As a career I do hope to use my imagination and offer people tarot readings, astrology and also meditation and voice arts astrology and also incarnation and yoga arts.

Really wonderful to know about the fixed stars when they are interpreted with such eloquence as I've read about in here. This reading is exactly what I wanted to explore and has provided a wonderful catalyst for some self exploration. I really appreciate it!

Marina and Jaime, in my opinion, are the leading progressive astrologers I have had the pleasure to get a reading from. Astrologers must not only have a breadth and depth of knowledge but also must possess skill and intuition regarding readings: Marina and Jamie have all of those qualities and more. As I was reading my charts, I could sense their own passion for interpreting information and the insight they gave me was priceless. I learned quite a few things about myself and I felt a larger sense of understanding regarding my circumstances, my personality, and my purpose. Everything they said made sense and there were instances and patterns of my life brought to my attention that I never really understood, but they sorted them all out. As a team, they each bring their own unique insights and knowledge and they work together to truly develop and unmask the the different layers that make us up as individuals.

I have referred my family and friends, with the utmost confidence that they too will be enlightened as I have. They are brilliant storytellers, and what makes it so much more enjoyable is that it's the story of your life-- of your many lives.

So, a big thank you to Marina and Jamie and I feel lucky and blessed to have found the pair of you to help me along my way.

@Marina

Am beginning to appreciate the wisdom of your approach more as I get further into astrology Marina and Jamie. Use of house systems looks random to some extent. How random you will know better than I. Would be useful to know what you find.

Houses can offer refinement, which can help deepen meaning and value for the individual, as well as complexity which may obscure. Down to the individual astrologer and the questions asked I guess.

I doubt the ancients used houses. Whether they used houses or not, Sign and Star based reading recalls a fundamental resonance - this has a strong appeal as it has an archetypal energy that is both deep and well established in meaning.

^ | v · Share ›

Marina · 7 years ago

Good question Michelle! In fact there are atleast 5 different house systems in common use by Astrologers. Planets on the cusps of a house will often fall into the next house depending on which system you use. Therefore I try to not rely too much on house positions.

The most important elements to me are the aspects and then the stars they fall on. If the houses reflect the same themes, THEN I will bring the house interp into it. I'm actually in the middle of researching into this as I am torn between whole signs and Equal signs as to which is best to use. I like both these systems because they work at high altitudes without compressing some houses beyond recognition.

Thanks for lovely feedback.

Dear Marina:

Thank-you for the Lilith piece! I was excited to get it sooner than expected. An interesting, enjoyable, connected, unique read. I think it takes a lot of talent to draw up such a reading without meeting a person. I am pleased. And, I am curious about something.... you had read me for sun 'n' additional gem. planets as being in the 11th house, as well as my moon 'n' neptune as being in the 5th... when I have always been under the impression that they fell in the 10th and 4th respectively. So I was wonderin. :)
